To whom it may concern:

I am writing to you about Mr. X [REDACTED]. As an instructor of ECON7200 (Economics of Financial Markets), I can assure you that he is one of the outstanding students in my class.

As instructor of economics at the University of Minnesota, University of Sydney, and University of Queensland, I have worked with many students who have substantial knowledge of economics and management. I have noticed that only a few outstanding students offer a unique perspective and really appreciate the subject matter. I had an impression that he clearly understood the material and showed a strong interest in the subject.

His academic record shows his ability. He achieved the score 98 out of 100 in my midterm examination. Also, his final examination was great and he got 84 in this test. Finally, he is very diligent that he attended all tutorial sessions and impressed my tutors. In summary, his class engagement and efforts are remarkable.

I am very happy to provide more information as needed. Please feel free to contact me if you require further information.

Yours sincerely

Shind [REDACTED]
